

Certified Clinical Medical Assistant (CCMA) Training Program

Cooper University Health Care, Camden County College, and Impact Charity Services, Inc., are partnering to offer
Cooper team members the opportunity to be part of this
NEW Sponsored Certified Clinical Medical Assistant Training Program at Cooper.

Start Date: Monday, November 11, 2024 • End Date: Wednesday, April 23, 2025

Your attendance at these training sessions is extremely important. Acceptance into this program is your commitment to attending ALL 42 training sessions.

TIME COMMITMENT FOR PROGRAM

42 classroom and semi lab training sessions

1. Program Length: 21-Week Training Course
2. Class Schedule: Mondays and Wednesdays each week
3. Class hours: 3:30 p.m. - 10 p.m.

Now
Accepting Applications!

Please note that this program is limited to 8-10 participants.

To be eligible for consideration, you must...

***Apply to Requisition # 26893 by Sunday, October 13, 2024

- Be in your current role or employed at Cooper for a minimum of 1 year.
- Have a high school diploma or GED.

**You must provide proof to Workforce Development at fugee-antoinette@cooperhealth.edu within 24 hours of submitting application.*

- Be eligible to transfer upon completion of this training program.
- Provide two letters of recommendation at the time you apply online; one letter of recommendation must be from your current Cooper manager.
- Be able to successfully fulfill your current work schedule and complete the required 273 didactic hours.

Selected candidates will need to sign a Certified Clinical Medical Assistant Training Program Agreement, which includes a 1-year commitment to Cooper upon successful completion of the program.

