

PLEASE JOIN

Cooper University Health Care in partnership with Drexel University for

SPEAKING UP IS HARD TO SAY

Wednesday, April 2, 2025
5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

This informative program will:

- Identify opportunities for nurses to speak up.
- Reflect on hurdles and enablers of speaking up.
- Reflect on the role of receiving speaking up.

Featured speaker:

Kate Morse, PhD, MSN, RN, FAAN,
CHSE-A, ACNP-Ret

*Assistant Dean, Experiential Learning and Innovation
Clinical Professor of Nursing
College of Nursing and Health Professions
Drexel University*

To register:

Email CooperNursing@cooperhealth.edu.

To join the program:

Click here or scan the QR code.

Use meeting ID: 868 9557 3196

CEU credits available:

1.0 contact hour will be awarded for attendance for the entire presentation and successful completion of evaluation.

NJSNA Requirements:

This activity has been submitted to New Jersey State Nurses Association for approval to award contact hours. The New Jersey State Nurses Association is accredited as an approver of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Cooper University Health Care is an approved provider of nursing continuing professional development by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. P#101-12/22-25

At the end of the activity the nurse will be able to identify speaking up opportunities and reflect on both hurdles and enablers of speaking up and receiving feedback from others.

None of the planners for this educational activity have relevant financial relationship(s) to disclose with ineligible companies whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.