

CAMDEN LEGENDS RETURN

Two Inspiring Events with the Still Family

You are cordially invited to two upcoming events celebrating community, health, and empowerment, featuring Camden legends.

Event 1: Amyloidosis Awareness Event with Former NFL Star Art Still

Join us for an important event focused on Amyloidosis awareness, headlined by Camden native and former University of Kentucky All-American and NFL All Pro, Art Still. Sponsored by Cooper University Health Care, this event aims to educate the public, promote early detection, and connect people with helpful resources.

- Date: Thursday, May 22, 2025
- Time: 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
- Location: The Salvation Army Kroc Center, 1865 Harrison Ave, Camden, NJ 08105
- About the Event: Hear Art Still share his personal story alongside experts from Cooper University Health Care. Learn about Amyloidosis, its impact, and available resources.
- Meet & Greet: Art and his wife Liz, with Art's siblings, Dennis (retired international professional basketball player) and Valerie, retired WNBA player.
- RSVP: Please RSVP here if you plan to attend

Event 2: Valerie Still Youth Empowerment Zone Basketball and Pickleball Court Dedication

Be a part of the grand opening of the new Valerie Still Youth Empowerment Zone Basketball and Pickleball Courts! This dedication honors former University of Kentucky All American, ABL and WNBA basketball legend Valerie Still, a Camden native, for her remarkable achievements and inspiring legacy. The new courts will provide valuable recreational resources for local youth.

- Date: Friday, May 23, 2025
- Time: 11:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
 - Dedication (Rain or Shine)
 - Unified Sports-Basketball/Pickleball Clinics & Instruction (subject to weather)
- Location: Camden County Educational Services Commission, 225 White Horse Ave, Clementon, NJ
- About the Event: Join us for speeches, a ribbon-cutting ceremony, interactive demonstrations of basketball and pickleball, and more! Enjoy Kona Ice and celebrate this fantastic addition to the community.
- Meet & Greet: Valerie's siblings, retired NFL All-Pro, Art and his wife Liz, along with Dennis (retired international professional basketball player)
- RSVP: Please RSVP here if you plan to attend

You're welcome to attend either or both events! We look forward to seeing you there.
