

Cooper Team Members: Train to Become a Certified EMT at No Cost

EMT Training Program

Cooper University Health Care, in partnership with Camden County College and Impact Charity Services, Inc. is offering Cooper team members a fully sponsored Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) training program, with the opportunity to become a certified EMT. This program is limited to six eligible Cooper team members.

This 13-week program provides comprehensive classroom and training sessions designed to prepare participants for EMT certification and future career advancement.

Application deadline: August 8, 2025. Apply via: Requisition #45472 – EMT Intern Program (Careers at Cooper – Internal Job Posting).

Program Overview

- ▶ Timeframe: Sunday, August 24, 2025 through Sunday, November 23, 2025 (No class 8/31/2025)
- ▶ Schedule:
 - Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.
 - Sundays from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
- ▶ Total sessions: 38 classroom and training sessions
- ▶ Cost: Fully sponsored for selected participants.

Eligibility Requirements

- ▶ Must be in your current role and employed at Cooper for at least one year.
- ▶ High school diploma or GED (Must upload proof to your Cooper Profile as part of your application requirement.)
- ▶ No active discipline.
- ▶ Must be eligible to transfer roles upon program completion.
- ▶ Submit two letters of recommendation (one must be from your current manager) to fugee-antoinette@cooperhealth.edu.
- ▶ Must maintain current work schedule while attending all training sessions.
- ▶ Must agree to register for the NREMT Certification Exam upon completion.
- ▶ Selected candidates must sign an EMT Training Program Agreement which includes a one-year commitment agreement to Cooper upon successful completion of the program.

